

The airing of the upcoming anti-Kerry documentary is not in public interest and our air-waves should not be used for personal political gain. This is a free political message for George Bush and they should be a law against it.